

"Supermarket Trolley"

Abstract of the description

A supermarket trolley comprising a base with wheels and a basket both made of a moulded plastic material. The basket is connected posteriorly to a pair of uprights of the base by means of respective substantially comb like formations mutually complementary and meshing with each other, whereto are associated mutually engaged tongue and groove elements.